RELIGIOUS SERVICES ON FAST DAY-GREAT DISCOURSE BY REV. J. B. JOHN-STON. - In accordance with notice previous-Thursday, to hear a discourse from Rev. J. B. Johnston. The exercises were conducted by the pastor of the Church, Rev. W. K. Marshall. Mr. Johnston's discourse was fully up to the expectations of his friends, and was listened to with delight by the largest concourse of people we ever saw assembled in the town on such an occasion. The building was literally packed with people. | Coast. Mr. Johnston was in feeble health, and consequently was compelled, very much against | Memphis, his inclination, to read his discourse. We will publish it entire next week. It is a mas terly production.

TRIAL OF THE COOK MURDERERS. - A Military Commission is sitting at Cambridge, trying Oliver and Hartup, the murderers of Deputy Provost-Marshal John B. Cook .-The Commission was convened by order of Maj. Gen. Hooker. Col. Warner, 17th Regiment Veteran Reserve Corps. is President, and Capt. J. D. Taylor, of the 88th Ohio, Judge Advocate. The prisoners are defended by Messrs. Hiram Skinner, J. M. Bushfield, and R. Savage. The doors are open to everybody. The Cambridge papers speak in very high terms of the members of the Court.

THE CONVENTION NEXT SATURDAY .-We hope the Union people of the various Townships will bear in mind the fact that a Convention to select delegates to the State Convention, and attend to other important matters, will meet at St. Clairsville on next Saturday afternoon; and we hope, too, that our Union friends will attend to the matter of selecting two good, judicious men, from each Township to represent them in this Convention. This Convention will be of more importance than our friends have been in the habit of attaching to similar ones, and we hope to see a representation from all the Townships.

THE SHOW .- The great combination show, Melville's Australian Circus and Driesbach's Menagerie, will perform under one pavillion. on the Fair Ground, this afterneon and evening. The press generally speaks very highly of this show. The Circus performances are first-class, and in addition there is quite a large collection of addition there is quite a large collection of animals, including the wonderful perform ing elephants and the hippopotamus.

TABELAUX VIVANIS .- There will be an exhibition of Tableaux and Music, given at the Presbyterian Church in Morristown, on the evening of the 8th, (Thursday). The proceeds to procure a library for the Sabbath School in said Church. Every effort will be made to make the entertainment pleasant and instructive. The public are respectfully invited to attend.

TAX PAYERS should bear in mind the important fact that if the second installment of taxes are not paid previous to June 20, 30 per cent, will be added to the original tax. They will also find it a much pleasanter matter to pay their taxes now. than to postpone it until the last week, when the Treasurer's office will be crowded.

THE 98TH OUTO REGIMENT is at Cleveland, being paid off. Soon the brave beys who have been "following the flag" for three or four years will be among us. We bid them welcome home. They have saved the nation, and in history will occupy a prouder place than the historic legions of
